Job Summary

To us, people come first. Our services are dedicated to providing the best level of care available. We believe in providing care that allows people to remain independent and to lead their lives with complete comfort surrounded by their family and friends.

Would you like to start a career in care? Maybe you've cared for someone at home and have a natural caring nature and strong communication skills? We are seeking a compassionate Caregiver to join our team in providing essential care and support to individuals in need. The ideal candidate will have experience in home care, or assisted living settings, and possess strong skills in patient care, but don't worry if you haven't as full training is provided.

Responsibilities:

- Deliver high-quality personal care to individuals in accordance with their care plans
- Provide assistance with daily living activities such as bathing, grooming, and dressing
- Monitor and report changes in the health or status of service users
- Assist with medication reminders and administration
- Support individuals with mobility needs and transfers
- Maintain a clean and safe environment for service users
- Build positive relationships with service users and their families

This is a starting role, so we don't need qualifications or experience... that's what we're here for. But there are a few key behaviours and skills we want to see from our candidates; and these are ones that if you possess and can demonstrate; you will make this work placement a real success!

- Proven experience in caregiving roles within healthcare environments would be beneficial but not essential
- Ability to interact with empathy and professionalism
- Strong communication skills to interact effectively with service users and their families
- A commitment to own learning and development and ready to complete the training on offer
- Ability to work well as part of a team
- Able to follow instructions and health and safety guidelines
- Punctuality and reliability are absolutely essential
- Reliability and excellent timekeeping are essential requirements of this job
